++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Dry this evening with heavy rain affecting all by dawn.

This Evening and Tonight:
Any showers will quickly fade to leave clear spells for all this evening. A small chance of a rural frost for a time. Cloud will thicken overnight as heavy rain arrives from the southwest, reaching most by dawn. Minimum temperature 1 deg C (34 deg F).

Saturday:
A wet and windy day, with some heavy and persistent rain, especially through the morning. Rain and winds become lighter in the evening, with some drier spells likely. Maximum temperature 15 deg C (59 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Nights become milder but remaining breezy and unsettled with sunny spells and showers throughout, perhaps merging into longer spells of rain at times. Rather chilly again by day next week.
